Farmingville, NY - On May 25, Deputy Supervisor and Councilwoman Kathleen Walsh and Councilwoman Jane Bonner presented Certificates of Appreciation to "Gold Award" recipients Caitlin Mallin, Krystyn Moutinho, Stephanie Osmanski, and Lauren Moutinho from Girl Scout Troop #2098 during a reception at the VFW Hall in Rocky Point.

The Gold Award is the Girl Scouts highest honor and is earned by completing a special project that meets a need in the community. The theme this year was "Healthy Habits" and each scout worked for a year on their project which included an educational video focusing on their respective health and safety related topic. After the videos were edited and finalized, they were distributed to younger Girl Scouts to help them acquire a firm understanding of the importance of health and safety.

In reaching out to others, these young women learn the talents and strengths within themselves including organizational and leadership skills, as well as a sense of community. This experience will provide them with the tools needed to become girls of courage, confidence and character and grow to be leaders of tomorrow, who will make the world a better place.
